HONDO, TEXAS

Situated on a roomy corner lot within walking distance to the elementary, intermediate, and middle schools, this spacious 3,100-square-foot home has been extensively and recently updated. With four bedrooms and three baths, this lovingly and meticulously maintained home has an open floor plan with spacious living areas and a beautifully landscaped yard. Interior features include Saltillo tile floors, hardwoods, granite countertops, custom built-in shelving, and a large utility and mud room.

The kitchen is outfitted with an enormous center island, custom cabinets, and new appliances. The airy living room has a wood burning fireplace. The master suite boasts vaulted ceilings, a luxurious bath with double sinks, and French doors that open onto the expansive backyard. On the opposite side of the house is a large game room ideal for movie watching and entertaining and with built-ins providing abundant storage.

Outside the home, there is an open porch in the front and a newly constructed privacy fence and driveway/carport area to the rear of the home. The home is nestled among large trees and the backyard custom firepit with flagstone surround is great for evening gatherings.
